GENERAL CAMP POLICIES

- There is no food or beverage allowed in your cabin. It attracts disease carrying mice. In addition, it attracts ants and larger animals. All food must be stored in the kitchen. If you receive a package containing food, please bring it to the kitchen to be stored. You may access your food during waterfront, free time or during small group to be shared.
- No inappropriate sexual behavior, illegal or non-prescription drugs, alcohol, tobacco products, weapons, firearms or fireworks. Any occurrence of these will result in dismissal from the session.
- Personal electronics are not allowed at camp because they detract from the community atmosphere and are at risk for vandalism. This includes cell phones, stereos, laptops, DVD players, MP3 players, etc.
- We ask that appropriate dress will be worn at all times. Clothing with inappropriate images, language, or advertising (i.e. lewd pictures or slogans, alcohol or drug references, no profanity) will not be allowed. The dress code is defined as: shorts must be longer than your fingertips, bathing suits must be appropriate with no spaghetti straps, underwear may not be seen at any time. Shoes must be worn at all times, except in cabins, greenhouses, and beach areas.
